

service outlets. It includes descriptive data for each state and for each individual public library. The data are collected entirely electronically and the survey is designed and coordinated by a federal/state cooperative system. Data collected allow analysis of such important variables as expenditures, staffing, size of collection and services comparing among libraries of similar size (as measured by population of legal service area). This information is used for policy decisions in the areas of legislation, funding and resource allocation. With this complete file of administrative entities, it is possible to select samples for specialized surveys for example on children's services or on access for persons with disabilities.

Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

June 11, 1997.

Take notice that on June 6, 1997, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia) tendered for filing to become part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, the following revised tariff sheets bearing a proposed effective date of June 7, 1997:

Fifth Revised Sheet No. 281
Sixth Revised Sheet No. 282
Second Revised Sheet No. 283

Columbia states that the purpose of this filing is to make minor modifications to the auction time periods in Section 4 (Auctions of Available Firm Service) of the General Terms and Conditions (GTC) of its Tariff to render them comparable to similar time periods applicable to capacity release transactions.

Columbia states that copies of its filing have been mailed to all firms customers and affected state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's regulations. All such interventions or protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. A copy of this filing is on file with the Commission and is available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
